SICK 4 YEARS; WELL IN 3 WEEKS

After Taking BAUGHN'S PELLAGRA TREATMENT.

This Woman Wanted Death To End Her Suffering. Happy Now She's Cured.

Garnsey, Ala.—Mrs. Bama Jacobs, of this place, writes: "I was a constant sufferer from that dreadful pellagra for four long years. My case seemed beyond my doctor's reach and in July, 1916, he said he could do no more for me. I would even find myself praying to die. I suffered so much. Finally my husband ordered a trial of Baughn's Pellagra Treatment and in three weeks I could see a great change and I am well today. I say to all, Take Baughn's Treatment and be cured, for my case was bad, and of long standing."

This testimonial says more than we could say, except this: We can cure pellagra and will undertake to cure any case, no matter of how long standing, on basis of refunding the money if we fail to effect a cure. If you suffer from such symptoms as red hands, skin peeling off; sore mouth, inflamed lips, throat and tongue; indigestion and nausea; diarrhoea or constipation, get today Baughn's big booklet on pellagra, sent free. ### ALL INDOSE EVERY PLANK IN PLATFORM

Democratic Candidates Express Confidence in Their Election.

The legislative candidates express themselves as being well pleased with the platform adopted at Saturday's meeting of the democratic executive committee. The candidates were all present and were consulted during the discussion, but only the redistricting plank caused any discussion. However, it was finally agreed that fourteen civil districts would be sufficient and this was agreed to by the candidates. There was no other discussion regarding the platform. The candidates all expressed themselves for the prohibition amendment and the suffrage amendment and other important legislation.

J. O. Martin, when seen Tuesday, stated that he was a democrat first, last and always, and that while there were one or two little changes he would have made in the platform, it was a good one. He stated that the platform was a good democratic one and should elect the democratic candidates. He said, however, it was not the prohibition and suffrage planks he had objected to.

CONFEDERATES ASSEMBLE

Veterans of Gray Meet At Tulsa, 4,000 Strong.

Tulsa, Okla., Sept. 24.—Many of the confederate veterans here to attend their annual reunion demonstrated today that much of the hardihood of their youth still is theirs. Nearly 4,000 revived memories of their army camping out days by sleeping last night in the school buildings here. Five thousand mattresses supplied by the local committee, were spread on the floors of the public schools and nearly 4,000 were occupied. The veterans were on hand bright and early today, well pleased with the accommodations provided and delighted with the opportunity for reminiscences offered by the big sleeping rooms. The blankets were provided by the war department.

The first session of the Sons of the Confederacy will be held tonight, but the veterans will not begin their meetings until tomorrow.

The resolutions committee will be named at the opening session and it is expected that one of the first resolutions to be adopted will be one pledging support to the president for the vigorous prosecution of the war.

SELECT SPEAKERS FOR LIBERTY LOAN DRIVE

Chattanooga Lawyers, Aided by Wounded American Soldiers, to Tour District.

W. G. M. Thomas, chairman of the speakers' committee for the fourth liberty loan campaign, Chattanooga zone, has selected the list of speakers for this year from members of the bar association. In addition to these, the government has assigned up to date two wounded American soldiers who have returned from the battle front to speak in this zone, and it is the opinion of Mr. Thomas that there will be others assigned to this zone later on. There will also probably be several French and British soldiers on speaking tours through this section of the country.

While the lawyers selected by Mr. Thomas will fill all necessary engagements in Chattanooga proper, they will be called upon to go out in the zone and make patriotic talks at the big rallies in the various centers.

Those who have been selected by Mr. Thomas are as follows:

Thos. H. Cooke, J. B. Frazier, W. G. M. Thomas, C. R. Evans, Lewis M. Coleman, W. B. Swann, A. W. Chambliss, S. B. Smith, D. L. Grayson, W. S. Starn, J. G. Burge, R. H. Williams, W. T. Murray, J. B. ### The Modern Version

Sing a song of thrift stamps.
A song of thrift stamps.
Four and twenty prices.
Raising a peace cry.
Now the cry is answered.
And Austria is the winner.
Isn't that a proper dish?
To set before the Kaiser?

The Kaiser's getting nervous.
Counting men and money.
The boche has found that frightfulness isn't quite so effective as he thought.
The crown prince does the goose step.
Everywhere he goes.
With Pershing's bells ready
To pull his royal nose.

Cocoon Oil Makes A Splendid Shampoo

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulberry cocoon oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rises out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulberry cocoon oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months. —(Adv.)

We Have A War On Our Hands

Not only war of battlefields on the ground, aeroplanes in the air, submarines on the surface of and under the sea, but a war also constantly going on against the human race by countless microbes, disease germs in the air and in food and drink. It is as fatal in many cases as a poisonous bullet, but when the system is in perfect condition, these same germs are comparatively harmless.

If you are weakened in any way, or suffer from impoverished blood, loss of appetite, nervous headache, sluggishness of the intestinal tract, insomnia, depression of spirits or diarrhoea arising from weakness or relaxation of the digestive organs, you should use Angostura Bitters as a household tonic.

It is designed to build up the system by natural methods, increasing the appetite, assisting the digestion and assimilation of food, enriching the blood, improving the circulation and creating healthy tissue.

Awards at all of the largest International Expositions.

The manufacturers of Angostura Bitters have been appointed by special warrant purveyors to His Royal Majesty, the King of England and the Royal Family of Spain.

WILL TAKE NOTICE POLICE COURT TRIALS

Atty.-Gen. Chamblee Plans Participation in Cases Before Minor Tribunals.

Atty.-Gen. George W. Chamblee, in discussing the manner in which he intended to conduct the attorney-general's office, stated that at all important trials in the police and justice courts, he or his assistant would be present and prosecute them. He stated that it was the duty of the city attorney to attend police court, but as this was not being done he would have the attorney-general's office represented.

"When I was city attorney a number of years ago," said Gen. Chamblee, "I attended police court regularly, and the court was then transacting a much larger amount of business than it now does. I shall be represented in police court for the reason that it aids me in the prosecution of the case and I hear the evidence of a case when it is tried in the minds of the witnesses. This is a great help when the case comes to trial in the criminal court. There are a number of cases being tried in the criminal court which would be of great help to the criminal court and there are a number being sent up that should be tried in the criminal court."

Of course, this is no fault of the police judge, for he cannot create every case personally, and it is my idea to have the attorney-general's office take this attitude. There is one thing certain, that because a case is dismissed in a police court or justice court it is no reason that it will be dropped for the grand jury will be directed to investigate and an indictment returned where facts justify."

Last week in the criminal court it was noticeable that life had been taken on by some one for the state, when three murder cases and one larceny case were called all the state's witnesses were present, as well as witnesses for the defense. In the larceny case, when the witnesses were told to stand up everybody in the courtroom stood up but the lawyers and jury. There were over a hundred witnesses in this case.

In the murder case, where two negroes were convicted of killing Private Sweeney, Gen. Chamblee said he had been assigned to investigate and had taken down every possible clue that he could. As a consequence he was able to have witnesses enough in court to convict the two negroes. He said that no second course of barrack regime could cure them. He said that our method of fighting militarism was the most effective. We listened to this and laughed up our sleeves.

Plotters did not fear separate-russ peace

Believed England would Reconcile Herself to Event.

Laughed at Lockhart.

Another installment of the series of documents obtained by the United States government which reveal the intrigues between Germany and the bolshevik leaders is published, illustrating the "offense tactics" of the bolshevik leaders against Great Britain and the United States, and includes a conversation by telegram between Tichiev at Petrograd (who is speaking) and Trotsky at Brest-Litovsk in the first week in February, a few days before Trotsky made his "no peace-no war" gesture, with its practical aspect of demobilizing the army and opening Russia's unarmed breast to Germany.

"With reference to the allies the situation is evidently favorable. Separate peace will cause rupture. England has reconciled herself to this in advance. The recognition of us is a matter of the near future. England and America are playing up to us separately. A few days ago there appeared a so-called head of a commercial mission, Lockhart, with a letter from Litvichoff stating that the bearer is an honest man who indeed fully sympathizes with us. Indeed, he is a subtle, alert Englishman; expresses very liberal views; runs down his government. He is a type of the diplomat of the new school. At present he is not an official representative, but de facto he is an envoy, having been sent by the war cabinet. After our recognition he will obtain an official position with us. He promises all kinds of favors from England."

"He explained that if we should not spoil the situation our recognition is a question of the near future, but something would have to be ceded on our part. He said that our government would tolerate intervention in its internal affairs. If we are going to raise the British people, if our agents in England will attempt to cause strikes, England will not tolerate this. It proved later that this had reference to Petroff's mission."

Difficult for England. "Concerning the latter specially Lockhart said that the appointment would be difficult for England to swallow, and should he be arrested in England or not be allowed to land, we would probably reply by reprisals and thus the whole business would be spoiled. He begged that we postpone this matter for ten or twelve days."

"Simultaneously Ransome tried to persuade Petroff not to go to England. His journey in case of a conflict would put the question of a revolution in England on edge, which would be exceedingly risky. We discussed this question and decided that our strength was in attack and that whatever would happen it would be the worse for Lloyd George and company, and the revolution would be the gainer. We sent Petroff's passport to be vised. Lockhart came running to us. I arranged for an interview with Petroff. Lockhart stated that the question had been referred for decision to London. We said that Russia represented the part of the world's revolutionary movement and that in this was its strength. We and our comrades in England would proclaim that this is not a concrete organization of strikes. We explained the aim of Petroff's mission—i. e., the clearing up of misunderstandings between two nations. He will appeal to all organs of the British nation. This has also been sent by radio."

Laughed Up Our Sleeves. "Lockhart stated that he was very well impressed and promised to telegraph advising that the case should be granted. We await further developments. He stated that according to English information the German troops on the eastern front were so badly infected by our propaganda that no second course of barrack regime could cure them. He said that our method of fighting militarism was the most effective. We listened to this and laughed up our sleeves."

WOMAN'S FITNESS FOR WAR WORK

There's no question of women's right to enter war activities—to take the place of the men now at the front. Indeed they would seem to have many points of superiority over men in some of the industrial fields which they are now entering. But to take men's burdens the women must be strong—must have iron nerves and good blood. So many women these days are frail, nervous, borne down by the pains and aches peculiar to their sex. A sex tonic and nerve builder is needed, such as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

An affection confined to women must have its cause in the womanly nature. There is no doubt that a diseased condition of the delicate womanly organs, is in general responsible for feminine nervousness and an undetermined constitution. The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes women happy by making them healthy. There are no more crying spells. "Favorite Prescription" is an herbal tonic for female weakness. It makes weak women strong.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been for nearly 50 years the most favorably known herbal tonic for women. Ask your neighbor! The "Prescription" is sold in tablet or liquid form. Send ten cents to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for large trial package.
